Dear Minnie,

Help me! I am really tired and angry. My mum and dad are always telling me and my brother to turn off the lights.

Last night I was in my room studying and they called me for dinner. So I went into the kitchen. My dad asked me what things were on in my room. So, I told him: my computer, the light, and my iPod. I was listening to music and studying, you know, doing what they want me to do!

Anyhow, my dad told me to go back to my room and turn them off. Then my brother got up from the table and went to the fridge. He kept the door open because he wanted a drink. Dad shouted at him, "Close the door. Don't waste energy!" How can we get things out of the fridge without opening the door? What is their problem?

Yours, Tiantian
