题目①

Dear Peter,

How is it going?

I'm glad you will come to Beijing. I advise you to visit the Palace Museum. It is the largest museum in China. There you can see not only Chinese ancient buildings but also Chinese art works. You can learn to make Chinese traditional handicrafts in the learning center. It's a good idea to get more information about the museum before your visit, and don't forget to book your ticket on the Internet.

If you need any help, please let me know.

Yours,

Li Hua

题目②

It's very important for teenagers to learn to do things independently. I can manage my time properly. I always get to school on time. After school, I usually do my homework first. I don't waste too much time on TV or computer games. At weekends, I spend some time tidying up my room. I think I need to learn to cook so that my parents won't worry about my meals when they are not at home.
