Dear Brett,

Thanks for your email. You do lots of sports at school in Canada. Ice hockey sounds great fun!

We do lots of sports at our school too. We' ve got a swimming pool at school and our class go swimming every Wednesday. We also play tennis, volleyball and football, but football in Australia is different to soccer. You can touch the ball with your hands!

There are lots of after-school sports clubs in Australia too. I go to the school' s climbing club on Mondays. There' s an indoor climbing wall in its sports hall. I' m lucky enough to be able to share my love for climbing with other students and teachers. I also go to a surfing club after school on Thursdays. We go to the beach and learn how to surf. It' s great fun! Can you surf in your country?

Write soon.

You get on the plane, take your seat and try to get as comfortable as possible. But after just a few minutes, the person behind you starts kicking your seat. You feel angry.

Here are some good manners that you should have on a plane.

Carry in front

When you walk to your seat, carry your bag in front of you. If you carry a bag over your shoulder, you can easily hit(碰撞) the people already seated.

Respect(尊重) your neighbor

Don' t put your legs, head or elbows in your neighbor' s space. And never sleep on your neighbor' s shoulder. If the people next to you are trying to read, sleep or watch a movie, don't try to talk to them.

Recline your seat carefully

If you would like to recline your seat, look behind you first because the person behind you may have his table open. It is also a good idea to ask the person if he would be okay with your seat reclined. And keep your seat upright during the meal time.

Take your turn when leaving the plane

When you leave the plane, be patient. Everyone will get off the plane, however it takes time. Let the people sitting in front of you leave first. Don't push your way to the front.

By practicing good manners, everyone can have a more enjoyable trip.

44. When you walk to your seat on a plane, you should carry your bag _____.

- A. over your head
- B. behind your body
- C. over your shoulder
- D. in front of your body

45. Which of the following shows your good manners on a plane?

- A. Watching a movie with your neighbor.
- B. Keeping your body in your own space.
- C. Keeping your seat reclined all the time.
- D. Trying to talk to your neighbor anytime.

46. What does the underlined word "patient" probably mean?

- A. Able to leave first.
- B. Able to help others.
- C. Able to move carefully.
- D. Able to wait for a long time.

47. What does the passage mainly tell us?

- A. How to be polite on a plane.

Can You Cook?

Tom is like any other teenager. He goes to school, does his homework, meets his friends and enjoys doing sport.

But between 5:30 and 6:30 from Monday to Friday, Tom does something different. He cooks dinner for all the family: mum, dad, younger brother Joes and older sister Emma.

Tom's mum

"I think it's important for teenagers to learn how to cook. Maths and English are important, of course, but they need other skills (技能) too to help them in today's world."

"First I taught Tom how to cook easy meals like pizza or egg and chips. Then he started using recipes (食谱) in my cookery books. Yesterday he made vegetable soup. It was very good!"

Tom

"I love cooking and I'm really good at it. None of my friends cooks. I don't know why. I think it isn't difficult and it's great fun!"

In the past, Tom didn't help out at home and his mum wasn't very happy with him. Today, things are different and she is very happy.

53. When does Tom cook dinner for his family?
54. Does Tom's mum think it's important for teenagers to learn how to cook?
55. What did Tom's mum teach him first?
56. What does Tom think of cooking?
57. How does Tom's mum feel with him today?

58. One possible version:

I went to Xi'an with some teachers and classmates in April. We visited Shaanxi History Museum. We saw a lot of old things in the museum and learned a lot about Chinese history. We also tried some special food. It was very delicious. I bought some presents for my family and friends. It was a great trip. I had a wonderful time!

听力录音材料:

1. M: Hi. Can I help you?
W: Yes, I'd like to buy a sweater.

M: We have a lot of sweaters over here. How about this one?

W: It's nice. Do you have this in Size S?

M: Yes, here's one.

W: Can I try it on?

M: Certainly. The fitting room is over there.

W: It's good. I think I'll take it. How much is it?

M: Great. It's $40.

W: OK. Here is the money.

M: Thanks. Have a nice day.

2. W: I'm so excited! We'll have a two-week holiday. What are you going to do?

M: I'm not sure. I guess I'll just stay at home. Maybe I'll read some books and do some sports. What about you? Any plans?

W: Well, my family are going to the beach. I'm going to take long walks along the beach every day and do lots of swimming.

M: Sounds great!

3. M: Excuse me. Is there a supermarket near here?

W: Yes, there is one on Green Street.

M: Could you tell me how to get there?

W: Go along this street and turn right at the third street. Go past the bookshop. The supermarket is next to the bookshop and opposite the bank.

M: Is it far from here? Do I need to take a bus or the underground?

W: No, it's near. You can just walk there.

M: OK, thanks a lot.

W: You're welcome.

4. M: Hey, Lily.

W: Oh, hey, Uncle Henry.

M: Is your mom at home?

W: No, she went for a walk in the park. Can I give her a message?

M: Yes. Your aunt and I are going out to have dinner with some friends on Saturday night. I want your mom to help us take care of Tom.

W: I can do it. I can take care of Tom.

M: Oh, don't you have other things to do?

W: No, I'm free. Don't worry. I'll take good care of him.

M: Well, that would be great. Thank you.

5. Music can change people. Learning to play the piano has made me different. I was a shy boy, but now I speak out.

I can play the piano very well. I know both Chinese and English songs. I can play the music by Mozart.

I have a piano class once a week. The teacher is kind and great. He can be strict, too. I play the piano for an hour a day.

Playing the piano also teaches me how to learn difficult things. Now I know I must put all my heart into something. Only a careful person can play beautiful music. This also helps my schoolwork.

I enjoy playing the piano and I hope to become a real musician one day!

6. M: Mum, I don't know what to do. I often start studying but end up doing something else. Can you help me?

W: Sure. Listen to me carefully. First, turn off your music. Music doesn't help you study.

M: OK. No music.

W: And keep the dog out of your room!

M: What?

W: Well, Every time the dog goes into your room, you stop studying to play with him.

M: OK. Bye, Patty!

W: Have an apple and a glass of water on your desk before you start. Then you don't need to go to the kitchen for something to eat or drink.

M: OK.

W: Take away your phone.

M: No way!

W: Yes. It stops you working. You can put it in another room and check your calls and messages later.

M: All right, but I can't turn off the Internet on my computer. I need it to search for information.

W: OK, but use the Internet only for study.

M: I know! Mum. Thank you.
