One day, I took my daughter to the playground in the park. As soon as we got there, my daughter ran to the swing and asked for a push. When I was helping my daughter, I saw another girl trying to make her own swing go high by herself. Her old grandmother was sitting on the chair nearby and smiled at me.

I gave my daughter one big push and then walked to the little girl. I asked if she wanted me to give her a push. She smiled and said "Yes". For the next two hours, I pushed the swings, and played with my daughter and the little girl. When we went home, I was very tired. But my heart was flying much higher than the swings.

One day two years later, I was a little tired after working for eight hours. But I needed to pick up my daughter before going home. While I was waiting outside the school gate, a little girl came over and smiled sweetly at me. What a surprise! She was the girl I helped in the park. She gave

Just don't want to work

Summer holiday is over. How many of you have stayed up late to finish your homework over the last few days? What about the school day? Do you start working on your homework right away when you get home from school?

A lot of people often put off difficult or big tasks until they must be done. They're called procrastinators (拖延症患者). Procrastination is a common problem for many people, in fact. Sometimes it just feels easier to wait until the last minute to do certain things. However, this is not a good thing, as you have to work harder and faster if you wait until there is little time left. This means procrastination makes you in hurry, so you can't do things better. For example, you will have a test tomorrow morning, you chat with your friends online, thinking about you still have time to prepare. But at last, you have to go over your lessons in a short time because it is very late when you take out your book. Of course, it cut down the quality of work. You should have done your work better, don't you?

I myself am a bit of a procrastinator. But every morning when I wake up, I list three important things I want to do or I have to do, then write them down on paper. I kept on trying this for a long time and it really helps me a lot. It can be hard to get started sometimes. But once I do, the work gets done quickly and with little stress(压力).

Everyone procrastinates from time to time. It's a natural thing to do. You don't have to blame(责备) yourself. After all, we still need time to relax and take a break from our busy lives. Just make sure you still get your homework done on time!

31. Procrastinators are people who _____.
- A. don't do their homework during holidays
 - B. often finish their tasks earlier than others
 - C. put off their work until the last minute
 - D. are not responsible for their own work
32. The third paragraph is mainly about _____.
- A. what the writer does to stop procrastinating
 - B. why people should finish their work earlier
 - C. how people procrastinate their work with stress
 - D. when the writer starts to list the important things
33. The writer probably agrees that _____.
- A. it is hard for people to finish work on time
 - B. procrastination is not a serious problem
 - C. people feel sad after putting off their work
 - D. people should relax before doing their work

四、阅读短文，根据其内容回答问题。（共5分，每小题1分）

Do you like chocolate? Most people love its sweet, creamy flavor(味道). But where did chocolate come from?

About 2,600 years ago, people first made use of chocolate. These people lived in Central and South America. They used the cocoa beans to make a special drink. However, this drink was not sweet. It was very bitter. As time passed, they started putting other things to their cocoa drink. They thought this could make it taste a little better. Later, when Europeans arrived in South America, they started to import this popular drink to their home countries. Milk, cream, and sugar were added, and finally chocolate, as we know it, was born. The first chocolate house opened in London in 1675, and chocolate milk was developed in Jamaica in 1689.

Chocolate is now one of the most popular flavors in the world. Nowadays, we enjoy the chocolate flavor in chocolate bars, ice cream, cakes, pies, and many other foods. Scientists tell us that dark chocolate is good for our health. They say small but regular amounts of dark chocolate can lower the possibility of a heart attack(心脏病). This is perhaps another reason for the popularity of chocolate.

According to the scientists, if we eat large amounts of any high-calorie food, including chocolate, we'll become very fat. However, with its delicious flavor, chocolate will keep popular. The secret of enjoying chocolate is to try not to eat too much of it.

- 34. When did people first make use of chocolate?
- 35. Why did people put other things to their cocoa drink?
- 36. Where did the first chocolate house open?
- 37. Why is chocolate popular in the world?
- 38. What's the secret of enjoying chocolate?

六、文段表达 (10 分)

Beihai Park is one of the most popular places to visit in Beijing. I went there with my classmates this May and we had a great time.

We arrived there early in the morning. The air was cool and fresh. As we walked along the lake, we saw many people doing exercises and dancing. We also took lots of pictures of the beautiful flowers in the gardens. Then we crossed the bridge and climbed up the hill. It was great to enjoy the views from the top. In the afternoon, we took a boat tour on the lake and we sang happily together.

It was a wonderful trip. We all felt relaxed and happy. I'm looking forward to visiting more beautiful places in Beijing.
