56. 题目 1

Dear Peter,

I am very glad to know that you're interested in the activities we are going to have. We are going to have a competition on the facts about the Winter Olympics this Friday. It will be great fun. After the competition, we can experience skiing on the playground! Isn't it amazing? What's more, we are going to give speeches on the benefits of winter sports next Monday and we will make some posters about our favourite winter sports.

These activities are very meaningful. They not only let us know more about winter sports but also encourage us to take part in them. And we will surely feel proud to be the host of this Winter Olympics.

If there is anything more that I can help with, please let me know.

Yours,
Li Hua

题目 2

There are many things we should value in our life. I value time the most because it's easy to simply let it pass. It is like a secret friend whose company is sometimes unnoticed. And we can't make up for the lost time.

As soon as I realize that time is priceless, I begin to value every second in life. To begin with, I make daily schedules and stick to them so that my time is well spent. Besides, I manage to spend time on worthy things, such as studying or being with my family and friends. I believe this is how time should be spent.

To live life to the fullest, let's all learn to value time.

听力录音材料

一、听后选择

听对话或独白，根据对话或独白的内容，从下列各题所给的 A、B、C 三个选项中选择最佳选项。每段对话或独白你将听两遍。

请听一段对话，完成第 1 至第 2 小题。

M: Hi, Anna. Would you like to hang out with me after school?

W: I'd love to. But I can't, Alex.

M: Why not? It's Friday today.

W: My parents don't allow me to hang out on weekdays. I must be home by 5:00 pm.

M: Then what about weekends?

W: Well, I have to ask my parents first. They are very strict with me.

M: I guess every family has rules.

请听一段对话，完成第 3 至第 4 小题。

M: What are you doing, Jenny?

W: I'm drawing a car, a car in 2050.

M: What will your car be like?

W: Well, it will look like our shoes. You could even put it in the shoe box.

M: But how will you drive such a small car?

W: I won't drive it. It will go by itself. I just need to "wear" it.

M: What makes the car go then? Gas or electricity?

W: In fact, it will get power from sunshine. It'll be computer-controlled, too.

M: Can you call it a car? It's a pair of shoes.

W: Good idea. I can call it carshoe.

请听一段对话，完成第 5 至第 6 小题。

M: Mum, I don't know what to do. I start studying but I always end up doing something else.

W: Well, you need to stay away from all the things that stop you from studying.

M: What do you mean?

W: For example, turn off your music. Music doesn't help you study. And lock the dog outside!

M: OK, no music. But why should I lock Coco outside?

W: Well, every time it goes into your room, you stop studying.

M: OK. Bye, Coco!

W: Most importantly, turn off your phone! If you turn it off, it's easier to focus on your study. You can read your messages later.

M: OK, but can I keep my computer? I need it to search for information.

W: Sure.

M: Thanks, Mum!

请听一段独白，完成第 7 至第 8 小题。

As a scientist, I think it is very valuable for students to perform science projects. Firstly, science projects are a great way to get students out of textbooks and into real life. They learn to solve real-world problems. Secondly, science projects give students a chance to practice different skills. For example, they can practice public speaking when sharing their final product with others. They learn how to organize time, too. Thirdly, students are taught the steps of the scientific method from an early age. However, a science project makes students finally use the scientific method. That's the most valuable for students in learning science, for it helps them to become critical thinkers.

二、听后回答

请听下面的对话，根据对话内容回答问题。每段对话你将听两遍。

请听一段对话，完成第 9 小题。

W: Hi, David! Kate and I are going to the space museum tomorrow morning. Would you like to go with us?

M: Sure, I'd love to. When shall we meet?

W: What about 9 am at the gate of the museum?

M: No problem! See you then!

请听一段对话，完成第 10 小题。

W: Sam, I heard that you had a talent show last week?

M: Yes, we did. And it was wonderful.

W: Did you take part in it?

M: Yes. I acted in a play.

请听一段对话，完成第 11 小题。

W: Hi, Tom. What would you like to do today?

M: Hi, Lisa. How about going to the cinema? There's a new movie on.

W: That will be great! How can we get there?

M: My mum can drive us there, so we don't have to take the bus.

请听一段对话，完成第 12 小题。

W: Excuse me. Have you got this month's Music for Teens?

M: Yes, I think so. Here it is.

W: Great! How much is it, please?

M: It's twenty yuan.

请听一段对话，完成第 13 小题。

W: Mark, what beautiful postcards you have! Where did you get them?

M: I bought them in Yunnan last year.

W: Have you been to a lot of places?

M: Yes. I will travel to a new place whenever I am free. And I enjoy myself a lot.

三、听后记录并转写

第一节：记录关键信息

请听一段独白，根据所听到的内容和提示信息，将所缺的关键信息填写在答题纸相应的位置上。每空仅填写一个词。本段独白你将听两遍。

Hello, I'm Chris. We've spent the whole winter indoors. Spring season is the first chance of the year to get outdoors. Here are the best spring season activities for families.

Firstly, connect with nature. Feel the earth in between your fingers as you plant a garden. You can also take a walk in the countryside, and collect leaves or rocks for fun. You may never know what will happen and it may turn out to be an adventure.

Secondly, help the birds. You can use your hard hats to build a birdhouse. It's a special way to welcome the birds back from the south. You can also create a bird feeder. Perhaps more birds will come to your neighborhood.

Finally, do outdoor exercise. You can fly a kite in the park. It will also be fun to have a bike ride along the riverside with your family.

第二节：转写

请再听一遍独白，转写你所听到的主要内容。
